

Middleburg Memos

Pastor Bobby Lewis
Senior Pastor

September 9, 2015

All Christians have a great responsibility to our _____ and our _____; however, we do not believe that human beings can be _____ by mere _____ or _____.

Only the transforming _____ of the Lord Jesus Christ can truly _____ a human being and bring about the _____.

Christians believe that the _____ has very important _____, including a divine mandate to _____ evildoers and to _____ those who do right (see _____).

In _____, Jesus spoke of our responsibility in the world by using the metaphor of _____. It is important to _____ Christians have a _____ influence in society.

In _____, Jesus spoke of our responsibility in the world by using the metaphor of _____. It functions to _____. We are to reflect Jesus' _____ in a spiritually _____ world.

The Bible reveals several specific areas of _____ that should be of foremost _____ to Christians. We do not do this only to improve society but also as a witness of God's _____ shown to each of us.

Jesus has a special place in His heart for people who are _____ by _____. Consider _____.

A _____ and _____ Christian responsibility is to speak on behalf of the _____.

Christians must work diligently to ensure that people from every _____ and _____ come to a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ and must _____ people of all _____ into the body of Christ. [Revelation paints a vision of the church in which believers are gathered from every tongue and tribe and people and nation (see Revelation 5:9).]

_____ is a matter of widespread controversy in our present day. The sexual revolution has now become institutionalized and is perpetuated through social _____, _____, and _____ that are directly at odds with the primacy of _____ and the model of sexual _____ that is revealed in the Bible.

Read _____. Our bodies are _____ for the Holy Spirit and belong to God. Therefore, we are to _____ God with our bodies.

One of our greatest challenges today is to speak the truth in love about the sin of _____. This requires Christian _____, _____, and _____.

Remember, God has not merely called people to _____, but to _____. We must demonstrate _____ without _____ and never sacrifice _____ on the altar of _____.

Cross-References: Exodus 20:3-17; Leviticus 6:2-5; Deuteronomy 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Micah 6:8; Zechariah 8:16; Matthew 5:13-16, 43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Romans 12-14; 1 Corinthians 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23-11:1; Galatians 3:26-28; Ephesians 6:5-9; Colossians 3:12-17; 1 Thessalonians 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8